

If you are new to Google Ads and create your first Google account with us , you will be able to redeem upto "USD 150" (depending on your country) on the spend you make in the next 31 days.

There are multiple coupon types offered by Google. The coupon in this offer will be auto applied (you don't have to manually enter any code). Coupon is automatically applied anywhere between 1st and 14th days since the first impression on the account. The amount spent in the 1st 31 days (from the 1st impression date) will count towards the amount that will be matched by Google (up to the limit specified)

Learn more on Promotional Coupons by Google

Google's T&C on promotional Code

How can you check the progress of the Coupons ?

To see how close you are to earning your credit, visit the Promotions page in your account. It's updated every few hours. You'll be able to quickly check your progress and the status of any credit, and see your completed or expired promotions. Here's how to get there:

1. Sign in to your Google Ads account.
2. Click the tools icon , and under "Billing," select Promotions.
3. On the "Promotions" page, you'll see all promotional codes added to your Google Ads account and the related amounts and statuses, including the following:

Active: Reward associated with coupon has been granted.

Redeemed: currently earning: Coupon was successfully redeemed, but the spend requirement (such as "Spend $25, get $50") hasn't been met yet.

Processing: Spend requirements (such as "Spend $25, get $50") have been met and our system is processing the granted reward amount.

Expired: Coupon expired after redemption and before spend requirement was met.

Invalidated: Coupon was invalid/invalidated.